ONLINE ABSTRACT SUBMISSION AND REGISTRATION SYSTEM (ConfTool)

The following privacy statement applies to the online abstract submission and online registration system ConfTool:

User Account

Data Privacy Agreement

In order to use the ConfTool system, you will create a user account with your personal details. Your user data, your actions and the results of your actions will be stored within the system.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Data

Information stored in the ConfTool system will exclusively be used in relation to this event or a subsequent event. Your personal data will only be passed on to third parties if this is necessary for the organization of the event, for billing purposes or for legal reasons (e. g. in the case of an external audit), but it will not be distributed or sold to other parties for other purposes.

Abstract submission

Copyright Transfer Terms and Licensing Policy

The abstract submitter assigns the organizers of all rights under copyright that may exist in and to the submitted work, including the rights to use, distribute, publish, record, broadcast, reproduce, and archive the work.

The abstract submitter warrants that the work and their presentation are original and that they are the author of the work and the presentation. To the extent the work and the presentation incorporate text passages, figures, data or other material from other authors, the abstract submitter confirms that all necessary permissions have been obtained to grant the license above.

Furthermore, the abstract submitter grants the organizers permission to use, distribute, publish, record, broadcast, reproduce and archive their presentation and comments at the conference in any format or medium.

Finally, the abstract submitter confirms that they have the power and authority to make and execute this form. For jointly authored works the signing author signs as authorized agent for the others. In the context of abstract submissions, the organizers may process and use the contact details provided for co-authors solely for submission-related notifications and organizational communication.

The event may provide a conference app that participants can download and use. Submitters' and authors' names and their submitted contributions may be displayed within the app for the purposes of participation and networking. By submitting their abstract, participants consent to their name and contribution being displayed in the conference app.

Note: Accepted abstracts will be published exactly as submitted, including all uploaded images. No changes can be made after the submission deadline.

All abstracts will be evaluated for their suitability to the conference, originality, and technical soundness. The Programme Chair Committee reserves the right to reassign abstracts submitted for oral presentation to poster presentation. Presenting authors must be present on site; virtual or remote presentations (oral or poster) are not possible.

Publication and Recording of Presentations

Presentations may be published on the conference website after the event and made publicly accessible without restriction. Speakers will have the opportunity to update their presentation files until 21 June.

Conference sessions may be video recorded. Recordings of presentations may be published on YouTube and made publicly accessible without restriction.

Presentation files will be transferred from ConfTool to the presentation system via a storage device and may be stored temporarily on the event location's server. These files may be accessed by authorized technical staff for the purpose of session management and technical support.
